Q1

```
read data
WOOL <- read.csv("Warpbreaks.csv")
model poisson regression mod<-glm(breaks~., WOOL, family = poisson(link = "log"))</pre> summary(mod)
##
Call:
glm(formula = breaks ~ ., family = poisson(link = "log"), data = WOOL)
Deviance Residuals:
      Min
           1Q Median 3Q
                                          Max
-3.6871 -1.6503 -0.4269 1.1902
                                       4.2616
Coefficients:
              Estimate Std. Error z value Pr(>|z|)
(Intercept) 3.17347 0.05567 57.002 < 2e-16 ***
              -0.20599
                          0.05157 -3.994 6.49e-05 ***
woolB
                                   8.107 5.21e-16 ***
tensionL
              0.51849
                          0.06396
              0.19717
                          0.06833
                                   2.885 0.00391 **
tensionM
---
Signif. codes: 0 '' 0.001 '' 0.05 '.' 0.1 ' ' 1
(Dispersion parameter for poisson family taken to be 1)
##
##
      Null deviance: 297.37 on 53 degrees of freedom
Residual deviance: 210.39 on 50 degrees of freedom
AIC: 493.06
Number of Fisher Scoring iterations: 4
vcov(mod)
##
               (Intercept) woolB tensionL
                                                            tensionM
(Intercept) 0.003099518 -1.193312e-03 -2.564099e-03 -2.564099e-03
woolB
             -0.001193312 2.659585e-03 5.034078e-19 2.454025e-19
tensionI.
              -0.002564099 5.034078e-19 4.090810e-03 2.564099e-03
tensionM
              -0.002564099 2.454025e-19 2.564099e-03 4.669354e-03
confint(mod,level=0.995)
Waiting for profiling to be done...
                     0.3 %
                                99.8 %
(Intercept) 3.013926429 3.32660462
              -0.351173215 -0.06152152
woolB
tensionL
              0.340192963 0.69951267
tensionM
              0.005811379 0.38973193
Part c
Extracting the design matrix
X <- model.matrix(mod)</pre>
```

```
betaest<-modest$coef
sigma <-vcov(mod)
y <- WOOL$breaks
p < -dim(X)[2]
                #number of parameters
#Part one: function for performing Metropolis sampling for poisson regression normal random walk.
#Inputs:
#y: vector of responses
#n: vector (or scalar) of trial sizes.
#X: predictor matrix including intercept.
#c: rescaling for variance-covariance matrix, scalar J(lambda*|lambda(t-1)) = N(lambda(t-1)), c^2*Sigma)
#Sigma is variance covariance matrix for parameters in J()
#iter: number of iterations
#burnin: number of initial iterations to throw out.
Metropolis.fn<-function(y,X,c,Sigma,iter,burnin){</pre>
p < -dim(X)[2]
                #number of parameters
library(mvtnorm) beta0<-rnorm(p) #initial values.
beta.sim<-matrix(0,iter,p) #matrix to store iterations beta.sim[1,]<-beta0 for(i in 1:(iter-1)){ beta.cand <-rmvnorm(1,mean=beta.sim[i,],sigma=c^2*Sigma) #draw candidate (jointly) beta.cand <-as.numeric(beta.cand)</pre> <-X%*%beta.cand xbc lambda.c
                <-exp(xbc)
                            #Calculating probability of success for candidates.
хb
          <-X%*%beta.sim[i,] <-exp(xb)
                               #Calculating probability of success for lambda(t-1).
lambda.b
#difference of log joint distributions.
r<-sum( dpois(y,lambda.c,log=TRUE)-dpois(y,lambda.b,log=TRUE) )
#Draw an indicator whether to accept/reject candidate
ind \leftarrow rbinom(1,1,exp(min(c(r,0)))) beta.sim[i+1,]<- ind*beta.cand + (1-ind)*beta.sim[i,]
}
#Removing the iterations in burnin phase results <- data.frame(beta.sim[-c(1:burnin),]) names(results)<-c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3') #column names</pre> return(results)
}
library(coda)
# c = 1.6
par(mar=c(2,2,2,2))
results16_1 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=1.6/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
results16_2 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=1.6/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
results16_3 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=1.6/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
c16_1 <- mcmc(results16_1[c('beta0', 'beta1', 'beta2', 'beta3')])</pre>
c16_2 <- mcmc(results16_2[c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3')])</pre> c16_3 <- mcmc(results16_3[c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3')]) c16 <- mcmc.list(c16_1,c16_2,c16_3)
plot(c16)
```

```
Trace of beta0
                                                                   Density of beta0
                                                  9
                                                  4
                                                  0
                                                  0
     0
           1000
                   2000
                           3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                           3.0
                                                                    3.1
                                                                             3.2
                                                                                      3.3
                                                                                               3.4
                  Trace of beta1
                                                                   Density of beta1
-0.1
           1000
                   2000
                           3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                       -0.4
                                                                -0.3
                                                                         -0.2
                                                                                   -0.1
                                                                                            0.0
                 Trace of beta2
                                                                   Density of beta2
                                                  9
                                                  4
                                                  2
                                                  0
           1000
                   2000
                           3000 0.4
                                                                        0.5
                                                                                0.6
                                   4000
                                          5000
                                                        0.3
     0
                                                                                        0.7
                  Trace of beta3
                                                                   Density of beta3
                                                  0
     0
           1000
                   2000
                           3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                       -0.1
                                                              0.0
                                                                     0.1
                                                                           0.2
                                                                                 0.3
                                                                                        0.4
                                                                                              0.5
Acceptance Rate
1 - rejectionRate(c16)
       beta0
                   beta1
                              beta2
                                         beta3
0.4704941 0.4704941 0.4704941 0.4704941
Gelman and Rubin diagnostic gelman.diag(c16)
Potential scale reduction factors:
##
          Point est. Upper C.I.
##
                             1.01
beta0
                    1 1.00
beta1
                    1
beta2
                    1 1.00
beta3
                    1
                             1.01
##
Multivariate psrf
##
1
Effective sample size
effectiveSize(c16)
       beta0
                   beta1
                              beta2
                                         beta3
   946.1410 980.9337 1016.6310 949.8586
# c = 2.4
par(mar=c(2,2,2,2))
```

```
results24_1 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=2.4/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
results24_2 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=2.4/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
results24_3 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=2.4/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
c24_1 <- mcmc(results24_1[c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3')])</pre>
c24_2 <- mcmc(results24_2[c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3')])</pre>
c24_3 <- mcmc(results24_3[c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3')])</pre>
c24 <- mcmc.list(c24_1,c24_2,c24_3)
plot(c24)
                 Trace of beta0
                                                                  Density of beta0
           1000
                  2000
                          3000 3.0
    0 4000
                                          5000
                                                                  3.1
                                                                           3.2
                                                                                    3.3
                                                                                            3.4
                 Trace of beta1
                                                                  Density of beta1
                                                 0
           1000
                  2000
                          3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                       -0.4
                                                                -0.3
                                                                        -0.2
                                                                                 -0.1
                                                                                          0.0
                                                                  Density of beta2
                 Trace of beta2
                                                 9
                                                 4
                                                 0
           1000
                  2000
                          3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                        0.3
                                                               0.4
                                                                      0.5
                                                                              0.6
                                                                                      0.7
                                                                                             0.8
                                                                  Density of beta3
                 Trace of beta3
                                                 N
                                                 0
           1000
                  2000
                          3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                           0.0
                                                                  0.1
                                                                         0.2
                                                                                0.3
                                                                                       0.4
                                                    -0.1
Acceptance Rate
1 - rejectionRate(c24)
##
       beta0
                  beta1
                             beta2
0.3011936 0.3011936 0.3011936 0.3011936
Gelman and Rubin diagnostic
gelman.diag(c16)
Potential scale reduction factors:
##
##
          Point est. Upper C.I.
beta0
                   1 1.01
beta1
                    1 1.00
beta2
                    1 1.00
beta3
                            1.01
                    1
Multivariate psrf
##
```

```
1
```

```
Effective sample size
effectiveSize(c24)
      beta0
                beta1
                          beta2
                                     beta3
1146.365 1151.456 1144.601 1183.105
# c = 3.2
par(mar=c(2,2,2,2))
results32_1 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=3.2/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
results32_2 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=3.2/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
results32_3 <- Metropolis.fn(y,X,c=3.2/sqrt(p),Sigma = sigma,iter=10000,burnin =5000)
c32_1 <- mcmc(results32_1[c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3')])</pre>
c32_2 <- mcmc(results32_2[c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3')])</pre>
c32_3 <- mcmc(results32_3[c('beta0','beta1','beta2','beta3')])</pre> c32 \leftarrow mcmc.list(c32_1, c32_2, c32_3)
plot(c32)
                 Trace of beta0
                                                                  Density of beta0
    0
           1000
                   2000
                          3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                          3.0
                                                                   3.1
                                                                           3.2
                                                                                    3.3
                                                                                            3.4
                                                                  Density of beta1
                 Trace of beta1
                                                  ω
                                                  4
                                                  0 2000
                          3000
                                                                -0.3
                                                                        -0.2
    0
           1000
                                  4000
                                          5000
                                                       -0.4
                                                                                 -0.1
                                                                                          0.0
                                                                  Density of beta2
                 Trace of beta2
                                                  9
                                                  4
                                                  2
                                                  0
    0
           1000
                   2000
                          3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                    0.2
                                                            0.3
                                                                   0.4
                                                                           0.5
                                                                                  0.6
                                                                                         0.7
                 Trace of beta3
                                                                  Density of beta3
                                                  4
                                                  2
           1000
                   2000
                          3000 4000
                                          5000
                                                     -0.1
                                                            0.0
                                                                   0.1
                                                                         0.2
                                                                                0.3
                                                                                       0.4
                                                                                             0.5
Acceptance Rate
1 - rejectionRate(c32)
##
       beta0
                  beta1
                              beta2
                                         beta3
0.1778356 0.1778356 0.1778356 0.1778356
Gelman and Rubin diagnostic
gelman.diag(c16)
Potential scale reduction factors:
##
```

```
Point est. Upper C.I.
beta0
                  1 1.01
beta1
                  1
                           1.00
                           1.00
beta2
                  1
beta3
                           1.01
##
Multivariate psrf
##
1
Effective sample size
effectiveSize(c32)
      beta0
               beta1
                         beta2
                                  beta3
1043.194 1020.809 1056.539 1074.782
comments
AcceptanceRate <- c(1 - rejectionRate(c16),1 - rejectionRate(c24),1 - rejectionRate(c32)) EffectiveSampleSize <- c(effectiveSize(c16),effectiveSize(c24),effectiveSize(c32)) rown <- c("c=1.6 beta0", "c=1.6 beta1", "c=1.6 beta2", "c=1.6 beta3",
          "c=2.4 beta0", "c=2.4 beta1", "c=2.4 beta2", "c=2.4 beta3",
          "c=3.2 beta0", "c=3.2 beta1", "c=3.2 beta2", "c=3.2 beta3") summarychain <- data.frame(AcceptanceRate,EffectiveSampleSize,row.names = rown)</pre> summarychain AcceptanceRate EffectiveSampleSize
c=1.6 beta0
                    0.4704941
                                          946.1410
c=1.6 beta1
                    0.4704941
                                          980.9337
c=1.6 beta2
                    0.4704941
                                          1016.6310
c=1.6 beta3
                    0.4704941
                                           949.8586
c=2.4 beta0
                    0.3011936
                                          1146.3646
c=2.4 beta1
                    0.3011936
                                          1151.4565
c=2.4 beta2
                    0.3011936
                                          1144.6011
c=2.4 beta3
                                          1183.1047
                    0.3011936
```

As we increase c the Acceptance rate decreases. With a larger c we have that the jumping distribution can draw samples from a larger range as seen from the density plots above.

1043.1944

1020.8089

1056.5386

1074.7824

c=3.2 beta0

c=3.2 beta1

c=3.2 beta2

c=3.2 beta3

0.1778356

0.1778356

0.1778356

0.1778356

For the case c=2.4/sqrt(p) the is reported to be 0.2903247. This is in line with the results from the lectures as

```
# c=1.6/sqrt(p) grc16 <- gelman.diag(c16)</pre> grc16$psrf
##
         Point est. Upper C.I.
            1.004507
                        1.010181
beta0
                        1.002239
beta1
            1.001388
beta2
            1.000946
                        1.001608
beta3
                        1.006501
            1.003577
c=2.4/sqrt(p)
grc24 <- gelman.diag(c24)</pre> grc24$psrf
```

```
Point est. Upper C.I.
beta0   1.007333   1.018318
beta1   1.001511   1.001875
beta2   1.001812   1.002133
beta3   1.002737   1.004956

c=3.2/sqrt(p)
grc32 <- gelman.diag(c32)
grc32$psrf

Point est. Upper C.I.
beta0   1.003925   1.014018
beta1   1.003742   1.009635</pre>
```